

We sent a survey to the IFW graduates

We Wanted to Know:

- Where they are from
- Where they found work
- If they are working in a field related to food or wine
- Any advice they may have for current students

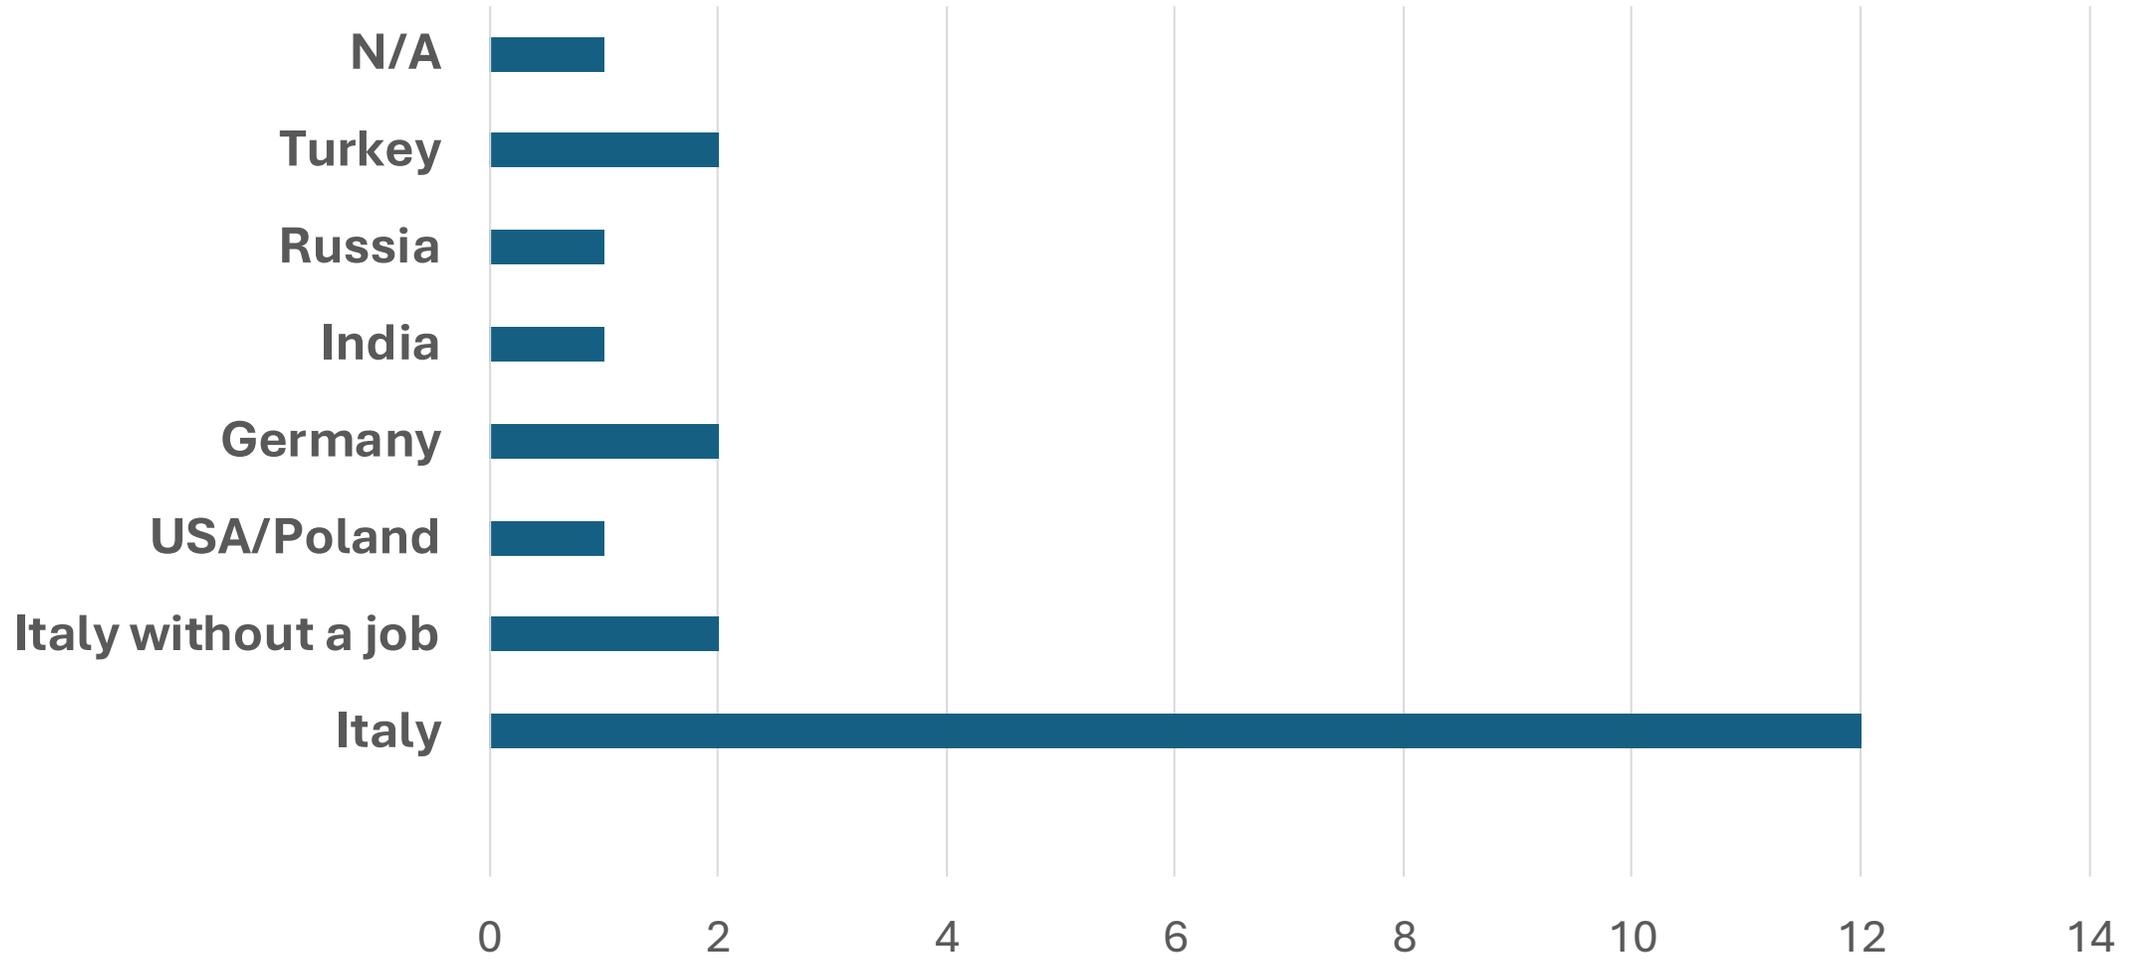

Where are you from?

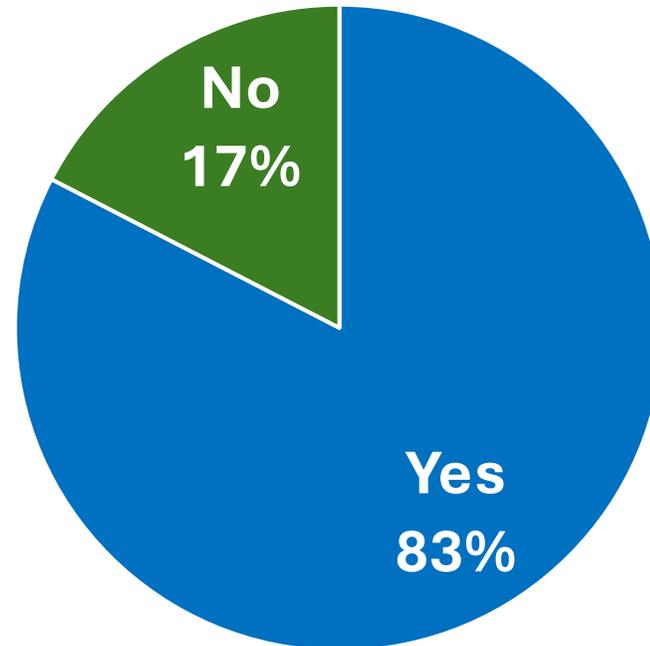

Are you working now?

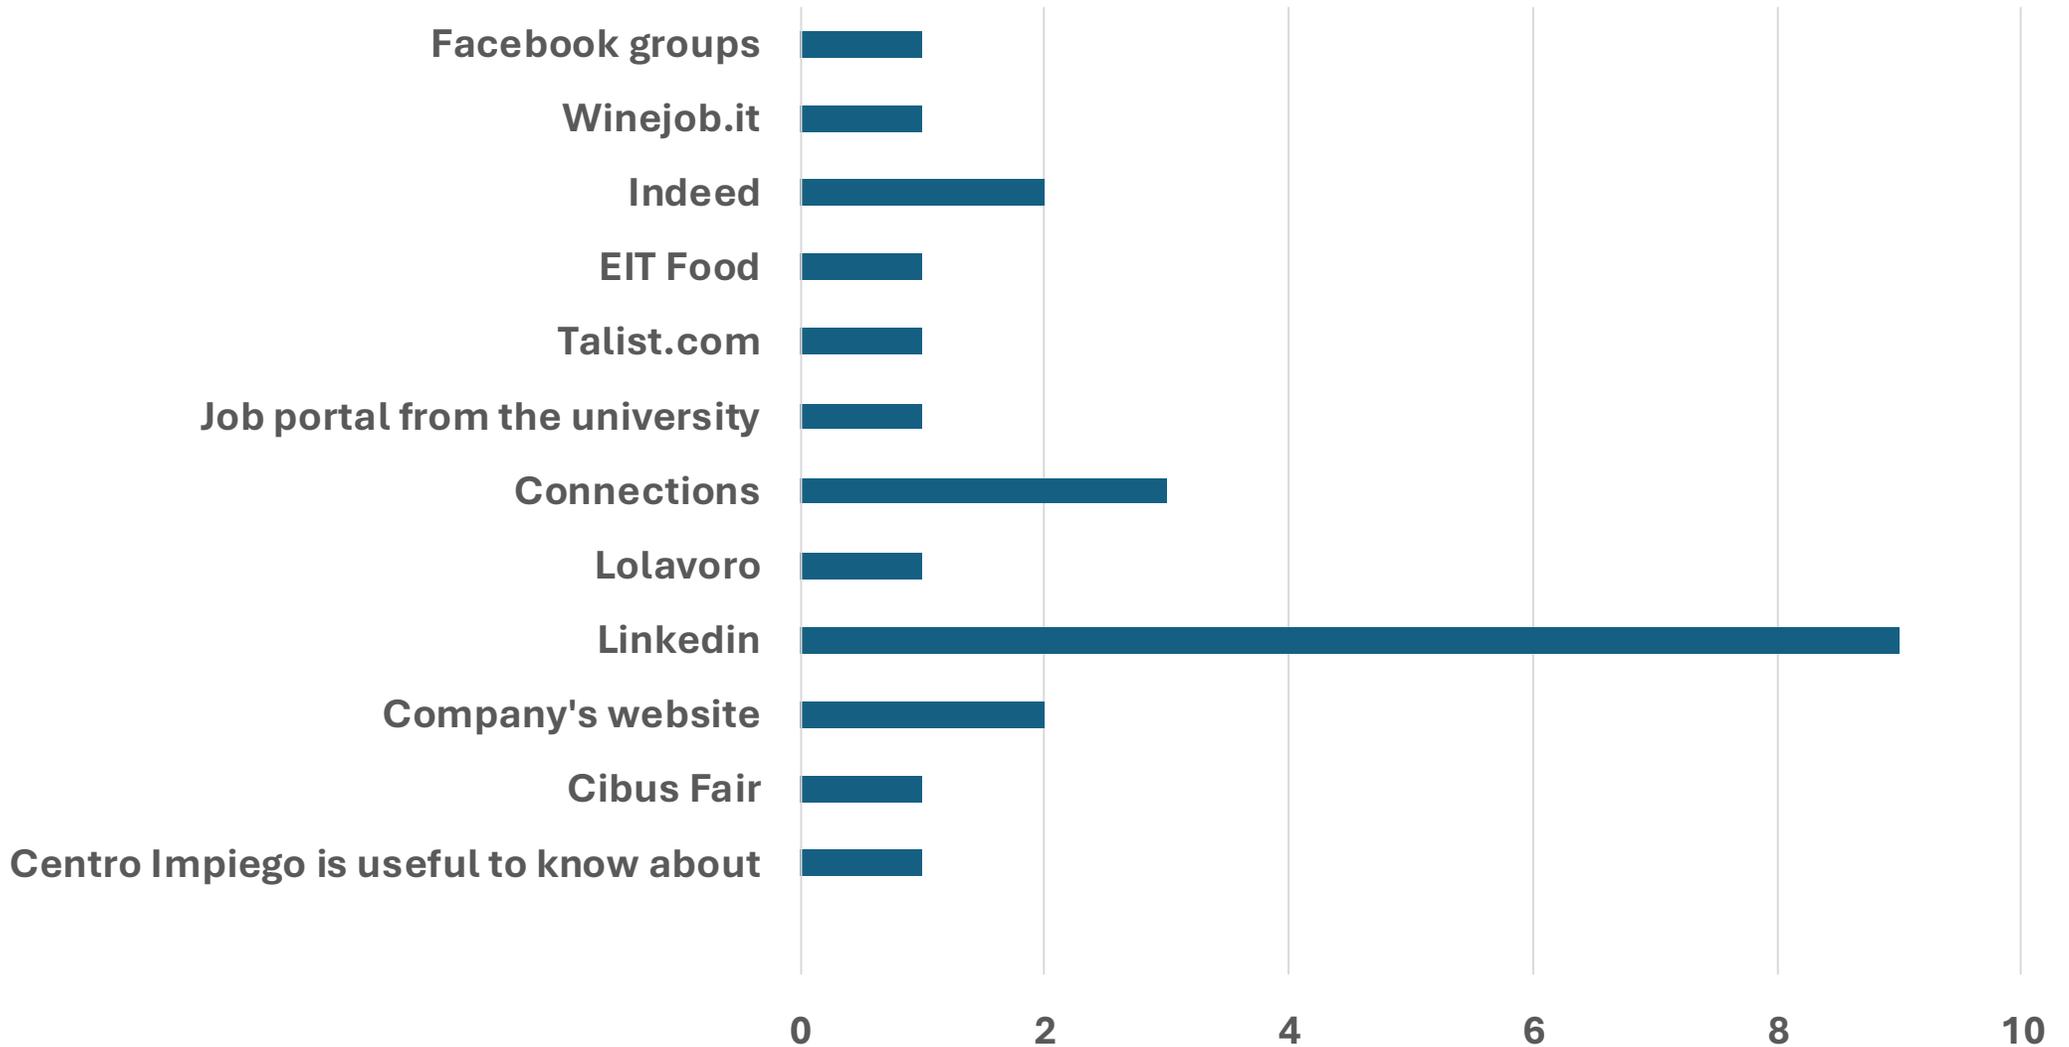

What Country are you working in?

Are you currently working in a field related to food and wine?

Were there any resources that you found helpful or that helped you find your current job?

Learn ITALIAN ASAP

Learn Italian, level up your skills

get familiar with the job titles you can do with the master

ADVICE FROM GRADUATES

go to Erasmus

Learn Italian if you want to work in Italy

If you want to stay in Italy, learn Italian!

Learn the language
(Italian or language of the country of your goal)

figure out permesso documents for after graduation!

Try to join as much as activities and events that IFW provide. And even offer some, be creative :)

Don't wait to find the perfect job description online, just start talking to people!

ADVICE FROM GRADUATES

Check LinkedIn every day

Connections, connections, connections!

keep looking for opportunities and apply pro-actively

Be open minded, start from somewhere which can lead to you something bigger than you imagined.

Most importantly send many many many emails to the related companies and individuals in order to reach your desired goals.

Choose one area - wine or food. If food, then be even more specific, for example, dairy, grain crops, and study what interests you.

Study hard and explore all the opportunities and fields that could become your future job

ADVICE FROM GRADUATES

Decide as soon as possible which is the most interesting topic for them in order to not get confused due to the multidisciplinary of the master itself

Do a stage and face the work environment while you are still studying

Get work experience and internships, harvests if you want to work in a winery

Start working during university (for example Stage) and attend other specialized courses (for example Sommelier, excel, digital marketing....).

La nostra Associazione rappresenta un network dinamico e ricco di opportunità, un punto di incontro dove l'esperienza incontra l'innovazione.
In questo spazio, favoriamo lo scambio di competenze e conoscenze tra gli alumni senior e i più giovani, creando un ambiente fertile per la crescita professionale.

Il servizio Alumni Job Opportunities è uno spazio riservato ad alumni e alumnae iscritti all'Associazione, pensato per facilitare l'incontro tra i professionisti in cerca di giovani talenti e i laureati e le laureate dell'Ateneo patavino, promuovendo un dialogo costante e proficuo. Unisciti a noi e scopri come il potere del network e della collaborazione può aprire nuove strade per il tuo futuro professionale!

Premi di studio e di laurea

Per premiare studentesse e studenti meritevoli, periodicamente l'Università e altri soggetti pubblici o privati istituiscono premi di studio: la grande maggioranza è destinata a laureate e laureati, ma in alcuni casi può concorrere anche chi è iscritto a corsi di laurea triennale o magistrale/specialistica a ciclo unico.

Modalità, requisiti, tipologia di premio variano e vengono specificati nei singoli bandi assieme alle informazioni di contatto degli enti che indicano il concorso.
